

HINES NAMED AS SUCCESSOR TO DIRECTOR M'ADOO

Advocates Five Year Continuation of R. R. By Government

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The policies of Walker D. Hines, newly appointed director-general of railroads to succeed William C. McAdoo will be advocacy of a five year continuation of government control or early relinquishment of the roads to private control unless congress promptly enacts remedial legislation.

"Mr. McAdoo's policies are my policies and I intend to carry them out through the existing railroad organizations," he telegraphed today to regional directors, immediately announcing of his appointment which was made by President Wilson by cable and on recommendation of Mr. McAdoo. The new director-general also declared for a "square deal for labor," "fair treatment of railway owners and patrons and closer understanding between the public and the government on railroad questions."

As assistant director-general Mr. Hines advised Mr. McAdoo during the formulation of the recommendation for five year extension of federal management and many other policies of the railroad administration have been developed on his recommendation. He was called in as Mr. McAdoo's principal assistant immediately after the government took charge of the railroads in the final days of 1917.

First Official Act.

Mr. Hines' first official act today was to delegate the railroad administration's case in the New York Marine Workers' strike to the war labor board for settlement.

The idea of combining the several hundred private lines into a federal system has been discussed by Mr. Hines but he said the questions relating to that subject were so numerous and perplexing it was confusing to try even to list them. He believes, however, that it will be an advantage to have the railroad problem discussed during the next presidential campaign. Hines said the sentiment of the nation is not sufficiently crystallized to permit congress to enact legislation that would be satisfactory. The director-general said he favored discussing and testing federal control over a period that would give needed information to the country after which congress would be able to act with greater safety. While he advocated immediate return of the railroads to their owners if the extension is not granted, he pointed to the possible labor difficulties and financial problems of the roads as arguments against this plan.

SEVENTEEN AMERICAN AVIATORS DECORATED

COBLENZ, Friday, Jan. 10. (By The Associated Press.)—Seventeen American aviators were decorated here today for deeds of heroism, some of which were performed during the fighting around Chateau Thierry in July. The French army authorities took advantage of the opportunity to bestow the medals which they had awarded. The recipients were from the twelfth, ninety-fourth and ninety first aero squadrons.

One of those decorated was Lieut. L. H. Bretteon of Washington, D. C. He distinguished himself at Chateau Thierry on July 19 by a successful flight toward Soissons, but had requested that the conferring of the medal be delayed until his observer on that trip, Captain Elmer R. Haslett of Los Angeles could receive his medal at the same time.

Haslett was shot down in the Argonne on Sept. 30 and was prisoner in Germany until after the signing of the armistice. Both Bretteon and Haslett were given the distinguished service cross and the French war cross.

Seven Convicts Escape From Michigan Prison

JACKSON, Mich., Jan. 11.—Seven convicts escaped from prison here tonight thru a tunnel which they had been months in making and which was carried under the north wall. Seventy five feet from the wall are the coal bunkers in which the men worked. Here they dug downward to a depth of twelve feet then they drove their tunnel northward going under the wall, and then digging upward, the opening being just outside the masonry and timed so that it was opened after dark. The earth which tottled tons, was secreted beneath the coal in the bunkers, and was not discovered until after the men were found to be missing at the evening count.

The escaping prisoners were observed by Ralph Muller, a guard at a munitions plant across the street from the prison. Muller covered two of the convicts with his revolver effecting their capture, but the others scattered in various directions in the nearby railroad yards and at a late hour tonight had eluded a pursuing posse, which was sent out a few minutes following the discovery of the escape.

The men who escaped were William P. Stone, a life man from Colbourn county. William Ernestsky, alias Max Miller, from Detroit, 25 years for robbery while armed. C. B. Henderson, from Detroit, 25 years for robbery, while armed. Louis Snyder, Detroit, 20 years for robbery. Ernest Laude, sentenced from Jackson, five years for theft. These men are still at liberty. The two that were captured were Louis Berkowitz, Detroit, 15 years for burglary. Walter Moran, Detroit, 15 years for burglary.

ADMIT DISAPPEARANCE OF BONDS WAS A THEFT

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 11.—All efforts were concentrated tonight in search for a clever thief who stole the $250,000 worth of Liberty Bonds belonging to the Studebaker corporation. John N. Hunter, postmaster in charge, and Henry J. Bridgman, assistant cashier of the First and Old Detroit National Bank admitted today for the first time that the disappearance of the bonds was a theft.

The chief development in the investigation today was the report of John E. Ennis, a Chicago handwriting expert that he found the signatures on all receipts for registered mail packages reported by the local postoffice as delivered to the Studebaker offices on January 4, to have been written by the same person.

The registered mail received on that date was signed for by Eddie Snyder, the 15 year old office boy who, however, has convinced all concerned that he knew nothing of the disappearance of the bonds. He declared he never saw the reddish brown envelope in which the bonds were mailed by the Detroit bank.

The investigation has settled down to a systematic pursuit of all possible theories. But the postoffice officials and the state detectives were convinced that the bonds were stolen by a clever individual whose identity whereabouts and methods of securing the bonds are a mystery.

MORE SECRETS OF NAVY DEPARTMENT ARE DISCLOSED

Thru-water and Underground Wireless Latest Inventions

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—How underground and thru-water wireless was put into practical use during the war was disclosed today by the navy department officials, giving to the public another of its secrets, carefully guarded to long as it might be of value to the enemy. Government officials regard this development originated in private research by James H. Rogers, a scientist of Hyattsville, Md., as one of the wars major scientific advances of the kind.

In practical use, the new system so far was employed only for receiving radio messages sent out from powerful stations in Europe are now being read at underground receiving stations in the United States and, in some cases, better than when caught by the elaborate and expensive air stations.

In addition it was revealed at the department thru an adaptation of the Rogers' theory, submarines underwater are intercepting radio signals sent from shore and with crude apparatus, the scientist has succeeded in transmitting signals two miles from a submerged wire simulating a submarine.

Further Developments Ahead.

Officials say it is possible, although not yet accomplished, that ground or water sending can be developed to a considerable extent. They do not anticipate, however, that the present method of sending from high towers will be superseded except for limit special services. The theory most generally held until Rogers demonstrated the correctness of his views was that unless hurried into the air from a radio transmitting station and dispatched eastward where the discharges of lightening when they struck the ground or water.

The Maryland scientist however believed that the impulses flowed thru the earth as thru the air and that it was only necessary to trap and measure them in the ground. He had been at work on this theory before the United States entered the war and already had interested naval experts. He offered the results of his work to the navy without restriction, and when they were accepted after some demonstrations at Hyattsville, officials say, he was with difficulty persuaded to accept even remuneration for actual time given to cooperation with the government. One of the first steps taken was the request of the navy department under war legislation that his application for patents be expedited. This was done.

Some Main Advantages.

Some of the main advantages of the Rogers' system as developed so far according to the experts are almost negligible cost of construction the intensifying of signals by pointing the sending apparatus toward the receiving station; and reduction of static interference. Because of the latter advantage the navy's receiving station at New Orleans where communication with ships in southern waters swept by frequent electrical storms is maintained, uses the underground apparatus with marked success. In war a great advantage is that the receiver is not exposed to enemy submarines. This is being done by wires trailing in the water.

LOYD-GEORGE CABINET A DISAPPOINTMENT

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Via Montreal.—The comments in the morning newspapers on the new British government are not very warm in approval. Most of the papers are disposed to criticize the new cabinet for its lack of "new blood."

The Times, while intimating it does not condemn the ministry altogether declares it has no hesitation in saying that Mr. Lloyd George's appointments will cause deep disappointment. It says he has not even made the most of his opportunities for reconstruction.

Over the names of the new ministers published in the Daily News is the heading "The Puppet Show."

Last Meeting of Supreme Council In Paris Today

PARIS, Jan. 11.—The plan of procedure for the beginning of the peace conference proceedings so far as can be ascertained is as follows:

On Sunday afternoon there will be held the last meeting of the supreme war council, whose first business will be the question of the renewal of the armistice for which the German delegates have been summoned to Treves on January 14. The Germans have not fulfilled several of the armistice conditions notably those concerning the delivery of railroad stocks. Consequently Marshal Foch has notified Mathias Erzberger of the German delegation that he would not renew the armistice automatically. The council will next pass up the introductory memorandum drawn up in view of the gathering of the peace conferees. In this memorandum, which will be submitted to the allied delegations the members of the conference set forth the object of their work and the order of it. The subject of the league of nations and of President Wilson's fourteen points figure in the very beginning of the document.

The president and the general secretary of the conference also will be elected.

According to the forecast of Marcel Hutin in the Echo De Paris the meeting will be adjourned on Monday until January 20 when President Poincare will welcome the members of the conference in the name of France. On the same day the vice presidents will be selected. They will be the premiers of the great powers. Several assistant secretaries will also be appointed.

It is understood that the sittings of the council proper will be held on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays of each week so that the British and Italian press could in case of urgent necessity go to their capitals every week without interrupting their work at the conference.

SEVERAL HUNDRED SPARTACANS KILLED

Many bodies are lying in the station building. The fighting in the newspaper district lasted four hours. Eighty were killed and many wounded. Unter Den Linden is in the hands of government troops.

The Spartacan trenches in the Tiergarten have been captured by government troops and the Tiergarten has been cleared of Spartacans.

The second guard regiment has retaken the Hallensee railway station from the Spartacans. The latter attacked the station Friday night, but a guard of only thirty men repulsed them. The station commands one railway to Potsdam.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The second leg of relief ships operated by the American committee for relief in the Near East will sail from this city Monday morning for ports in Asia Minor. This vessel is the Mercutius which has been loaned to the committee by the navy department with the approval of the administration. Carrying an assorted cargo for relief purposes, the Mercutius will reach Constantinople in about thirty days and begin the work of distributing food, clothing, and medical supplies among the starving and plague infested peoples of Armenia, Syria and Persia and among the Greeks of Asia Minor.

Another steamer, similarly equipped, but carrying a larger cargo will sail from this port about the middle of the month. This ship also has been loaned to the American committee by the government. Marine Workers Strike Is Ended, Return To Work

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The marine workers, whose strike has tied up the port of New York for three days voted tonight to return to work as soon as possible in compliance with the cabled request of President Wilson, according to an announcement tonight by Stephen J. Condon, secretary of the marine workers' affiliation.

Mr. Condon also stated that the strike committee had ordered word be sent immediately to all members of the affiliation, that as many as possible should return to work tomorrow morning. He added that the committee had agreed to leave the whole controversy for settlement by the national war labor board which is expected to meet Monday morning.

While the war labor board will have to settle questions of wages and the eight hour day, it is the latter which will cause the chief difficulty. In announcing his inability to effect a settlement the board stated it was the demand for an eight hour day to which the boat owners refused to agree that prevented settlement.

While the strikers offered a unit body with which the board may deal the employers' side included several parties. Besides the four government departments—army, navy, railroad administration and shipping board the war labor board had also to listen to the pleas of private boat owners.

The government parties to the controversy announced today that they were willing to submit to arbitration by the government.

HUSBAND KILLS WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN

CRESTON, Ia., Jan. 11.—Crushing their skulls with a club, John Hoskins, a farmer residing two miles north of Prescott, killed his wife and two step-children today, severely injured his own daughter and then tried unsuccessfully to kill himself by cutting his wrist and throat.

The crime was committed while the family was at breakfast. Domestic trouble was the cause ascribed by neighbors.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins had been married previously, and each had children—a boy and a girl. When Mrs. Hoskins left the room for food, Hoskins picked up a club under the door and killed Gladys, 18 years old, and Roy Campbell, 16, and struck his own daughter, Irene, 15, but she escaped after the blow, and Hoskins then went to the porch and met and killed his wife. When a neighbor came in response to a loud appeal for aid Hoskins tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat and wrists but inflicted only minor wounds.

ALLIED HEADS ARRANGE FOR PEACE CONGRESS

First Meeting of Supreme Inter-Allied Council Today

PARIS, Jan. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—The first meeting of the supreme interallied council since the American delegation arrived in Paris is expected to be held at the French foreign office tomorrow. This will bring together President Wilson and the premiers of the three other principal powers, David Lloyd George, Georges Clemenceau and Vittorio Orlando, who will probably be accompanied by their foreign ministers, Balfour, Pichon and Sonnino. It is understood that Colonel House will also attend with President Wilson and Secretary Lansing as he had served as the president's representative on the council until the president arrived here.

This supreme council is distinct from the interallied conference as the supreme council is confined to the president and premiers, whereas the interallied conference is made up of the full delegation of five members of the great powers and a lesser number from other powers. For this reason the full American delegation will not attend the meeting Sunday.

The purpose of the meeting is to arrange a preliminary program for Monday when the other nations will be represented and full delegations will be present. The matter of representation and Monday's meeting of the interallied conference have been the subjects of informal discussion among the various national representatives but so far no official announcement has been made.

Orient Delegations.

The arrival of the Japanese and Chinese delegations has brought to the front the possibility of the assertion by the right to represent the later and it may be this will be one of the questions considered tomorrow. It is expected that the interallied conference will be one of them. Monday will assemble early Monday. Sessions, more or less formal, will likely last several days with M. Clemenceau as temporary presiding officer pending the arrival of belated delegations and the launching of the conference in its full membership.

When that stage is reached the purpose of delivering the Welcome of France to the delegates and Georges Clemenceau, the French premier will then be chosen permanent chairman of the conference.

Aside from the meeting of the supreme council and the interallied conference, interest centers in the interallied relief committee which held its first meeting today after the arrival of the Earl of Reading, representing Great Britain. This is an organization of which Herbert C. Hoover is director general and today's meeting was for the purpose of securing the cooperation of all the allies in the extensive relief plans.

Operations In Archangel By U. S. Satisfactory

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—General March made public today a report from the American military attaché at Archangel on operations in northern Russia during December and the early days of this month, indicating that the situation was regarded as satisfactory both from military and sanitary standpoints.

The chief of staff said he had no confirmation of reports that British forces were being withdrawn from the Archangel sector.

The official record announced by General March showing the location in France and Germany of the American divisions, gives eleven divisions as comprising the army of the occupation.

Comparison with the last official announcement of the composition of this force shows that the Seventh (regular) division under Major General Edmund Whittenmayer has been added and the 89th (Kansas, Missouri and Colorado National Army) and 90th (Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma National Army) divisions have been detached from the army of occupation. This reduced the aggregate strength to eleven division from twelve.

The list shows also that the following division have been "skeletonized," indicating they have been placed on priority for early convey home or for use in part as replacements:

31st (Georgia, Alabama, Florida National Guard).

34th (Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota National Guard).

38th (Indiana and Kentucky National Guard).

84th (Indiana and Kentucky National Army).

86th (Illinois National Army).

39th (Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas National Guard).

With the exception of the 39th some units of each of the divisions noted already have been announced as returning home.

Buenos Aires, Jan. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—The settlement reached this afternoon ends only the strike of the Vascos and the sympathy strike. There is no change in conditions with regard to the general strike declared by the anarchist federation or the port strike.

Buenos Aires, Jan. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—The committee in charge of the general strike this afternoon, after a conference with President Irigoyen and the president of the Vascos Iron Works.

Government troops turned machine guns on a force of 200 strikers and their supporters when they attacked the postoffice shortly after noon, dispersing them. Twenty persons were killed and sixty wounded in another attack on the Vascos Iron Works today.

Although the report spread thru the city about five o'clock that the strike had officially ended, shooting continued in various sections for several hours later. The conditions of the settlement have not yet been announced.

The attack on the postoffice was carefully arranged. Men began to strike in the building as it on business and when about two hundred were assembled shooting began. The government's machine guns soon put an end to this terrorism.

Two police stations were attacked early in the day as was also a hospital.

The employees of the Armour Packing interests in the suburbs of Avellaneda joined the strike movement this morning and attacked the meat deliveries of the Sansinena Packing House, which supplies the public institutions. The packers entrenched themselves when the police arrived and the seventh infantry was sent to reinforce the police. At night fall the two opposing forces were still lined up in battle formation.

Meat supplies were taken to the public institutions late this afternoon under heavy cavalry escorts.

That's a cruel measure a Missouri legislator has proposed. The man in question has brought in a bill making the playing of craps a felony in that state. But then, the measure hasn't passed yet, and if it did some retaliatory measure would likely be proposed to stop all games of chance.

A report from the war department overseas gives the name of Capt. R. G. Landis as an American ace and he is credited with twelve victories. When it is known that this aviator is a son of Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis there is nothing surprising about his success as a fighter or his distinguished service to his country.

SPONTANEOUS SUPPORT.

It is said that the meeting of Republican party leaders in Chicago in the interest of the presidential candidacy of Gov. Frank O. Lowden was a purely spontaneous affair. These leaders were in Chicago on account of the meeting of the National Republican committee and merely by common consent they got together for the Lowden boom. It is more than likely that there will be other "spontaneous" gatherings in support of the Illinois governor in various parts of the U. S.

MORE TROUBLES FOR WAR DEPARTMENT.

Everybody has known that the mail service to the soldiers overseas was more than unsatisfactory and could be termed nothing but a failure. Under the fire of criticism the postoffice department has "passed the buck" to the war department, claiming that the delivery of mail was assumed by Secretary Baker and his assistants. It will now be up to the president to reassert that Mr. Baker is one of the most marvelously efficient men he has "ever had the pleasure to meet."

CORN PRICES.

The grain growers have felt and these past few days as they have seen the corn market slipping. The decline came with the announcement that the war trade bureau had changed the restrictions on Argentine corn and indicating that some of the accumulated crop of South America can move to the U. S. delivered at a lesser cost. But there is no reason yet for gloom, as the market is likely any day to take an upward turn. For the men who control are not ready yet for prices materially lower. Live-stock values and the worth of grains other than corn all have something to do with the situation.

THOSE LANDS FOR SOLDIERS.

Secretary Lane is insistent about his plan to provide a great sum to reclaim lands for soldiers. Unfortunately it would take so long to accomplish the work of irrigating or draining the lands suggested that the soldiers would have been long employed in other lines of activities. But granting that the land scheme was carried out, it would certainly be great for the soldiers if the land values increased as steadily as has been true in Morgan county during the past year or two. The best land here is touching new high levels. Somehow the big advance seems to apply only to that soil rated as the best.

It will not be many days before ex-soldiers of this war will have formed an organization in this country, analogous to the Grand Army. It will be the nucleus which every officer and soldier will join when he gets back home, and within a year the most powerful influence on the political life of the United States in existence will have become an actuality. A new brown sweep clean. This veterans' organization will be not only new but strong, and filled with a virility that will brook no opposition to its program.

RECONSTRUCTION IN THE CHURCH.

Heads of theological educational institutions, gathered in Chicago, have decided that the church must not return to pre-war conditions, if it hopes to interest the people. Theological dust and high priced music will not satisfy the coming generation, it is declared. It is time to stop fussing over the Apostle's Creed and train ministers to meet the real needs of men and women.

This is a wise conclusion. For many years there has been complaint that men were deserting the church. Evidently the church was losing its grip on men, and it was losing its grip because it had not kept pace with changing conditions.

Men of today, and women also, are not interested in the fine points of creeds and professions of faith. They are interested in the welfare of mankind.

The churches which have been most successful are those which have met the changing changing conditions.

The men who come back from France will not be materially different in their desire from the men who remained at home, but both classes will be interested in the church only as the church proves its ability to meet the needs of the people. (Springfield News-Record.)

Rippling Rhymes

BRACED UP

Once more I've had my trousers pressed, once more my shoes are polished bright; I feel quite nifty for I'm dressed as well as any gent in sight. When war was on the people looked with scorn on those who wore good rags; they derided, dogged and gaddooked, and talked of treason to our flags. And so I wore a seedy coat and pants that wrinkled at the knees; I hoped to get the Prussian goat by wearing kid-dewed duds like these. I bought cheap gingham at the store, with other patriotic men; the stovepipe hat my father wore was put in service once again. And when I awoke in the glass, I was a wondrous sight to see; I often went and said, "Alas! No wonder horses shy at me!" But while I thought I'd whip the Teuts by cutting down the wardrobe bills, I gladly wore my cowhide boots, my gingham, corduroys and twills. But when the armistice was signed, I hustled to the clothing store, and said, "The nations will not mind, if I wear real clothes once more. The shadow's gone from stricken France, once more the war worn Belgians grin; so I will buy some decent pants, and wear a shirt that isn't tin." Oh, James, it is a pleasant thing, to wear a white man's clothes again, nor fear the bitter taunt and fling of ultra-patriotic men!

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 11.—A great poultry breeding plant will be opened in northern France to aid in re-establishing poultry raising in the war ravaged districts of France and Belgium according to D. Auction sales will be held at the show to raise funds for the work overseas. Thirty six states and Canada are represented by entries at the show.

WITH THE COLORS

From Private Clarence Taylor.

The following letter, written by Private Clarence L. Taylor from France will be read with interest by the soldier's friends here. He left with the Morgan county troops Jan. 25 and has been in service over seas since August.

Vitry en Mantague, France, Dec. 14, 1918.

My Dear Wife: Well mareneus I have a chance to write some of my trip. If you look on the map you may be able to trace some of it. I landed in France the 18 of August at Brest and went from there to a small town thirteen kilos from Mehuin. We were there while in Co. I, 154 infantry. We were there transferred to Co. M, 52d infantry 6th division in which I am at the present time. When we first landed in the trenches we were of course a little afraid to venture out much, but at the end of six days we left and came thru Gerardmer from the Vosges mountains, traveling on to St. Ame, where we left on our way to the Verdun sector or at the end of our march which ended at the distance of about one day's hike from Sedan, where we were at the time the armistice was signed.

We are now at a small town which is not very lively. We get plenty of sweet milk from the French. We now have a Y. M. C. A. where we get writing paper, cookies and jam, but I am looking for that Xmas box of candy from the good old U. S. A.

One of the fellows has received a list of Morgan county boys who lost their lives in active service, so where Harry Grady's name is among them I sure feel sorry for Mr. and Mrs. Grady. I received a letter from you last night and one from Aunt Maude. She is sure counting on us coming out to see her when I get back. I am in hopes we can go out to see her in the early part of 1919 as I don't feel like there is any chance of going any earlier than then.

Mareneus the next time you talk to Harry you tell him to order plenty of syrup and buck wheat flour cause I am going to make the hot cakes fly when I get back. I would love to have about twenty of them and about two pounds of syrup and butter.

I had some time. We were on a day's hike and of course tired when we got in but the cooks had us a good feed ready and altho our turkey was substituted by "corn Willy," we enjoyed it all the same.

I am in hopes that I may be on the way home shortly after you get this.

There is no more news to write now but I think of a piece I saw in the paper which says the boys are back to the old game of squads east and squads west. I am now doing that and outside of being a little stiff after our long hike which lasted for about two hundred and fifty kilos and not being able to tell east from west, I feel like I was just beginning to learn.

Tell all that I am o. k. With love to all.

Private Clarence Lee Taylor, Co. M, 52nd Inf., American E. F. A. P. O. 777, France.

LEE FLYNN DIES
IN FRENCH HOSPITAL

Another Morgan County Soldier Has Given Life in Great War. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Flynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Flynn, living southwest of the city, have been advised of the death of their son, Lee Flynn, in France. The young man was reported as wounded in October and his death occurred in a hospital in France in November. The news of his death, however, was not received until Friday by his parents.

Lee Flynn left Morgan county with the troops last June for Camp Taylor. A little later on he was transferred to Camp Beauregard, La., and went from there to Newport News, August 8 he sailed for France and the journey over occupied fifteen days. Full particulars have not been received but the parents know that "their soldier" took part in the Verdun campaign and that he was in the now famous battle in the forest of Argonne. While they cannot but mourn the death of their son, it will be some consolation to remember that he gave his life in the name of liberty and that he helped to win one of the most decisive battles in the great world war. The deceased is survived by his parents, four brothers and sisters.

George Holley, a well known resident of the city, died at Our Savior's hospital at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. He had been ill of heart trouble and disease incident to old age for several weeks but had been a patient at the hospital for only one week.

Later he entered the employ of Scott and Jameson and for 28 years was employed by George Jameson. He has for a number of years past been employed in the blacksmithing department of Cherry's livery.

"My Little Pets Love Cascarets"

TO MOTHERS! If you will learn to give this harmless candy cathartic to your children, instead of castor oil, calomel and pills, you will save money and avoid lots of worry and trouble. Truly!

When one of the kiddies has a white tongue, a tainted breath, or stomach or a cold; when bilious, constipated, feverish, remember, Cascaret to quickly "work" away the nasty bile, sour fermentations and poisons should always be the first treatment given.

Children really like to take candy Cascarets and they never gripe the tender bowels, never injure, and never disappoint the worried mother. Give Cascarets to children one year old and upwards.

A 10 cent box contains full directions for children and adults.

VILHELM AT THE BAT

The outlook wasn't brilliant for the German troops that day; Bulgaria and Turkey had struck out and quit the fray. When Austria retired having failed to hit the pill. The eyes of all the Fatherland were turned on Kaiser Bill.

He goose-stepped to the rubber with a proud and haughty glance. Resolved to knock the pellet from Berlin to Paris, France. The Prussians wildly cheered him as he twisted his mustache. And hollered, "Hoch der Kaiser!" when he grabbed his mighty ash.

Ten million eyes were on him as he dipped his hands in blood; Ten million hands applauded as he rubbed them in the mud. And, when upon the umpire, he contemptuously spat, No person in the crowd could doubt 'twas Vilhelm at the bat.

But Pershing's pesky pellets had the Kaiser on the run; The first one split the platter and the umpire yelled, "strike one!" He looked the next one over as across the plate it flew; "Dot ain't my style," said Vilhelm, and the umpire said "strike two!"

The third one fairly sizzled as it sped across the plate. And Vilhelm pounced upon it, but he swung a trifle late. Then from the maddened populace there rose a lusty roar. For Vilhelm, mighty Vilhelm, had struck out and lost the war.

Oh, somewhere in the Fatherland there is a ray of hope. And somewhere there are people who have sauerkraut and soap; And somewhere there is weinerwurst und lager beer und cheese. But there is no joy in Potsdam, mighty Vilhelm hit the breeze.

SWINDLER HAD CONSIDERABLE LOOT

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Some of the loot of "Christmas" Keough, notorious swindler and forger, has been found in a safe deposit box in this city, according to a statement made tonight by Edwin P. Kilroe, assistant district attorney. The contents of the box which Kilroe said fairly bulged with jewelry and travelers checks, were estimated to be worth between $15,000 and $20,000. It also contained $2,360 in cash. In addition there were eleven drafts on Drexel & Co., of Philadelphia for from $100 to $1,500. Many of the checks were on the Canadian Bank of Commerce. The jewelry included dozens of diamond studded pieces—watches, rings, ear rings, pins and cuff links.

The articles can be identified, Kilroe said, by merchants who delivered them on bank drafts stolen by Keough who was arrested in Altoona, Pa., two weeks ago after he had attempted to pass a bogus draft in Philadelphia. It has been Keough's custom for years to operate only during the Christmas holidays and at Easter time.

PERSONNEL OF THE BOLSHEVIKI

Interesting Information Obtained By Agents of the Allied Intelligence Department and Prisoners.

Archangel, Jan. 11.—By The Associated Press.—The latest information obtained by agents of the allied intelligence department and from Bolshevik prisoners has developed a number of facts about the personnel and organization of the Bolsheviks in the North Russian front. This information indicates that the Allied and American troops are now opposed by a force, while not of high morale, is at least well organized. It is offered not by Germans as at the commencement of operations but the main part by former Russian and Lettish officers of considerable training.

The Bolsheviks have as general officers and battalion and company leaders, many officers of the former Russian emperor's army who were either forced to serve on pain of death or imprisonment or who are serving for pay. The Bolsheviks do not trust these men and to nearly every one is attached a "commissar" whose principal duty seems to be to spy on the officer and report him for punishment if he shows signs of wavering.

Sixth Army Opposes Americans.
Opposing the Americans and the Allies on this front is the Bolshevik sixth army with general headquarters at Volodga, whose commander in chief is General Getlis, formerly commander of one of the Lettish brigades in the old Russian army. His chief of staff is former General Parski once commander of the old Russian twelfth army corps who is now military adviser to the Bolshevik government.

The sixth army is in turn divided into four groups of which the first, or reserve is located at Volodga. This group consists of about 5,000 men and has been under command of "Colonel" Loewe, an Austrian Bolshevik adventurer.

The second known as the Archangel group includes four columns fighting on the Volodga railway on the positions at Kadish and Tareservo, the Omega force and the one operating on the Vargaveri and in the direction of Shenskursk. Its general headquarters is at Pletzezkays and it is commanded by a former lieutenant named Lengovsky.

The headquarters of the third group is located at Krasnoborsk and consists of 6,300 men operating between the Dvina, the Pinega and Metzen rivers. Its commander, Gekkar, was a lieutenant in the old army.

Its first line positions on the Dvina are under command of a private soldier named Baradulin.

Trained Troops.
The fourth group with headquarters at Vyatka is composed of reserve troops acting as a buffer between the Allies in the north and the Czechs on the east. It numbers about 8,000 men mostly in training.

The officers of these forces are constantly being changed, the officer in command one day being arrested the next day a suspect of counter-revolutionary tendencies.

The sailors in particular seem to be deserting the Bolshevik cause. They were the strongest advocates of them are known to have been taken recently to Volodga under arrest. The Bolshevik army displays strange tendencies in battle, some times fighting bravely and at others fleeing without firing a shot. The Bolshevik soldiers are now receiving an average of two pounds of bread daily, about one pound of meat or fish and also sufficient sugar and tea.

Prisoners say that the Bolshevik troops are the only people in the interior of Russia receiving enough to eat.

DR SPERRY HAS UNUSUAL RECORD

Among business and professional men of Jacksonville there are few records equal to that of Dr. J. W. Sperry. Saturday was the thirty-seventh anniversary of the occupancy of his office rooms above the Byrns hat store, southwest corner of the square. Dr. Sperry has been in practice thirty-nine years and so has occupied his present offices all but two years of that time. He has spent his entire life in Jacksonville, and is one of the well known citizens here.

NURSING SURVEY TO BE FINISHED THIS WEEK

Special Drive Will Be Made By Workers to Get All the Desired Facts—Magazine Explains Campaign Purpose.

It is the earnest desire of the nursing survey committee that the work shall be completed this week. Miss Grace Carter, county executive secretary for the campaign, said yesterday that the National Red Cross organization had fixed the week beginning Jan. 13 for the completion of the survey. To that end the work will be pushed vigorously and the records will be completed by the end of the week.

As already indicated it is the desire to register not only graduate nurses but those in training, practical nurses and attendants at institutions. There is nothing compulsory about registration but it is the request of the government and the Red Cross organization that the record be made complete of those who can do nursing work in any capacity. None of those who are listed can be taken for war work in a compulsory way and the whole matter is voluntary.

Some Difficulties. The local committee is meeting with some difficulty in securing the facts about non-registered nurses because few of them are at their homes and it is difficult to locate them at times when it is possible to fill out the questionnaires. As it is the intention to complete the work this week, arrangements have been made for registration at the public library each day between the hours of 9:30 a. m. to 12 and from 1 to 5 p. m. Those who are qualified for nursing of every class and who have not been called upon by members of the committee are requested to visit the library and fill out questionnaires. The committee here is especially pleased with the interest shown at various institutions. There has been hearty co-operation with the result that the records as related to those institutions are now practically completed.

Reasons for Campaign. One reason for this present campaign is made clear in a paragraph from an editorial in the current issue of the American Journal of Nursing. This article says:

"Owing to the several attempts during the war to get this information, it seems to be difficult to arouse an interest in the Red Cross census at this time. The governor's census taken during the early summer of 1917, requiring the registration of every one between the ages of 19 and 50 this of course including nurses, proved to be unsatisfactory, partly because the returns were so late in being classified and tabulated for use.

"Every nurse who receives a Red Cross questionnaire should fill it out and return it immediately, and she should interest herself to know that isolated nurses in her community, both trained and untrained, have received and returned these blanks also. We want to make it clear to them that in filling out this questionnaire they are not pledging themselves to service of any kind, they are simply allowing themselves to be counted with all of the other women of the country who are in any way caring for the sick."

M. C. THOMPSON ILL

M. Clarence Thompson, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner, is confined to his home northwest of the city by the flu. Mr. Thompson is therefore unable to make the canvass among his friends as expected and takes this method of asking for their support at the primary election to be held Saturday, Jan. 25. Their earnest support will be greatly appreciated.

MORGAN COUNTY LAND AT NEW HIGH FIGURE

Farm on Mound Road Sold by C. A. Rowe to Charles Tendick at $300 Per Acre—Soil is of Highest Quality.

High class Morgan county land yesterday went to the $300 mark. The 96 acre tract owned by Charles A. Rowe located between two and three miles west of Jacksonville on the Mound Road was purchased by Charles Tendick. This sale was closed up Saturday by E. B. Wiswell. This farm is less than a half mile east of the Mound, sloping gently to the south from the road. It is not highly improved but every foot of the land is tillable and it is in fine condition.

Mr. Rowe with his understanding of soils and agricultural methods, has raised large crops there from year to year but at the same time has built up the soil. Mr. Tendick is to have possession March 1. A year ago he returned to Morgan county from Iowa and purchased the Grant Graff farm east of the city. He recently sold this property to Cass Travis.

This farm was owned for a number of years by the late William Woodall and was afterward sold to John R. Davis, at a price something less than $100 an acre. Mr. Davis after a few years sold it at an advance of $15 or 20 an acre and it came into the possession of the late W. H. Rowe. At the time Mr. Davis sold the price he secured was considered high and that was only about fifteen years ago.

About five years ago an article was published in the Journal as an interview with various bankers concerning the price of land, and giving their opinion as to what the future held. A. L. French Saturday in discussing the sale mentioned above, recalled that in that article he was one of those quoted who expected it would be only a question of a few years until the best land in this county would command a price of $300 an acre.

DR. A. M. KING FIGURES ON INFLUENZA

Dr. A. M. King, city health physician offers the following figures on the influenza situation in Jacksonville.

Dr. King said last night that there were lots of rumors going about of the large number of cases that have been reported in the past few days. The figures are given to correct false impressions and to let the people know that there is no occasion for alarm.

The ban was lifted from churches, pictures theaters and other public gatherings on December 19, 1918. In the 24 days intervening there have been reported 104 cases of influenza or an average of 4 1-3 cases per day.

In addition to a marked decrease in the number of cases in October and November over December and a portion of January there has been a marked decrease in pneumonia cases following the decrease, and also in the number of fatalities.

"With the Colors"

Letters of Interest from Morgan County Boys in the Country's Service.

From John F. O'Brien.

George Rodriguez of West Court street is in receipt of the following letter from John F. O'Brien, written Dec. 2, at which time the writer was in a hospital in France:

December 2, 1918.

Friend George,—
Well, I guess you think I have forgotten you but that is not the case. I have been sick for a month and have been in the hospital, and it looked for a while as if I was going to "cash in", but I am able to sit up again, altho I am pretty weak. Well, George, there were two of us picked out of my detachment for our good work and I was one of them. We were to get a trip to southern France and then we were to go to Libina, Switzerland and stay for ten days. Uncle Sam was to pay all expenses. The trip would have been worth a thousand dollars to us. That is where all the millionaires go as it is a swell place. But the worst part of it was that I was against me. For I took sick the day before I was to leave, and I had to come to the hospital instead. Don't you think it is enough to make any sick man die to have to miss a trip like this? But then, that is not the first time I was ever disappointed.

Well, George, I guess you have read about this town, Toul, many a time in the paper. It is a city of about 40,000 and it is one swell place. The poor and the working class of people live under awful conditions. For instance, they keep the cows or the hogs in the cellar or in the same building where they sleep, so you can see the odor must be rather unpleasant.

I was in Paris once and it is certainly a grand place but I did not get to see much of it. When we arrived here in September we were to get five days at a rest camp but I did not see any of the first month and it rained all the time. We were in the Metz front all the time. I saw a few air battles and they are sure exciting. One day I saw a German plane come down in flames. We finally got so we would pay no attention to airplanes. Some times they would be as thick as flies. Take for instance, I went six weeks without taking a bath and kept my clothes all on all that time except my shoes. But I was satisfied, as I wanted to do my part. I am glad it is all over and that we are at peace again. The people back in the states have no idea what the boys went thru over here. If any one had told me I would not have believed that I could ever have stood it, but the excitement keeps one up. I was talking to Chris Geneatos, who was formerly in the Princess Candy store at home. He is in the receiving office here at I see him every day. There is one from Murrayville over on the other ward but I do not know his name. I heard it was in the Jacksonville papers that John Carl was gassed, but that is not true for he was not gassed or wounded in any way. He is now up in Belgium. John was put in the infantry, and he is now in the best of health. I heard Lieut. Dickson of old Co. B was killed, and I was sorry to hear of his death. But that is war.

Well, George I do not know when I will get back but I hope to be with you in the paint shop by the 1st of February. I am getting weak so I had better close for this time. Hoping to see you soon and that this finds you in good health, and wishing you a Happy New Year. I am,

Your old friend,
John F. O'Brien.

From Russell N. Miller.

Edgar Sorrells of Murrayville has requested the Journal to publish the following letter, which he has received from Russell N. Miller, with the American forces in France:

Antigny Le Trand, France.

December 8, 1918.

Mr. Edgar Sorrells,

Murrayville, Ill.

Dear Friend:—

It has been quite a while since I wrote you, so will try to write you a few lines this morning. I am fine and dandy, and having a good time as usual. We have a good old French dwelling house to live in and wooden bunks and have some good cooks, so we should worry.

I suppose you would like an outline of my trip, so will endeavor to give it to you. We left New York City Sept. 9, and arrived in Liverpool, Eng., Sept. 21 after a good trip across the ocean. There we hiked with packs from the landing to the depot and went onto a passenger train and traveled across England to Rumsey. There we stopped in a rest camp till the morning of Sept. 23. We hiked nine miles with packs, to Southampton and that night went on board a cattle boat and crossed the English channel and landed in Le Havre, France, Sept. 24. There we hiked up a hill and about three miles to a rest camp and rested until the night of Sept. 25th. We hiked back down to Le Havre and loaded into box cars, about 25 or 30 men to the car and traveled up within about 8 miles of Paris, then down thru Orleans and Louis and down to Montpoint, in the Province of Dordogne. There we remained billeted in dwelling houses from the night of Sept. 27th until Nov. 11th.

We drilled and practiced and on the afternoon of Nov. 11th we hiked back into Montpoint and went into box cars again and traveled thru Chateauroux, where Roy Hicks was the last time I got a letter from him, then on to St. Aignan, in the Province of Loir Et Cher. There our sanitary train was split up and made a skeleton organization, with six men and an officer to represent each company. I happened to be one of the fellows to help represent our company. So am still in the Sanitary train. There is one other Illinois boy with me in this company, Ansel from Calhoun county, Ill. Also Sergt. Lloyd Spire is with me. He is in headquarters company. We left the rest of the boys at St. Aignan, Nov. 23rd and believe me, I hated to leave the old bunch after knowing all of them so long.

We came from St. Aignan thru Dijon and Chateauroux up to Joinville, got there about noon Nov. 25th, and got in Ford trucks and rode out about 5 miles to Aisel, a small village. There last Sunday morning we hiked up to this town. It is two miles closer to Joinville.

We are on the bank of the Marne river now, about 50 miles from Verdun. The Marne canal runs along on this side of the river. So we see quite a few canal boats going and coming on the canal. They are drawn by horses or mules. They don't work cattle here as they did in Southern France while we were there.

We see a great many troops passing thru here on the trains, going to and from the front, both U. S. troops and French, and quite a few pass thru hking.

We got some mail the other night. I got four letters from home and a few that weren't from home, "see?" It was the third mail we had received since about Nov. 11th. We have been on the move so much that our mail couldn't catch up with us.

Well, how is every body back around Nortonville? Hope they have the "flu" stopped long before this. Oh yes, Dad said he had traded the Ford for an Overland. Wonder if I can learn to drive it when I get home? Expect I will teach it to stand on its ear.

Say, we had some chocolate last night. It was French chocolate, so was little chocolate, bars about the size of those chocolate Hersheys we get at home for five cents. We give 2 francs for it here or 40 cents, also give about 8 francs for a small can of cocoa. So we made up a lot of it in our cups last night.

Well I will hand you out the rest when I get home. Hoping this finds you all O. K. I will close as ever.

Your friend,
Russell N. Miller.

From Harold H. Bartlett.

Harold H. Bartlett, 82nd Co., 6th Regiment, U. S. Marines, A. B. F., wounded July 19th at Chateau Thierry and reported killed, wounded again Nov. 1st in Argonne battle and still in hospital on Dec. 12th, writes as follows:

France,
Dec. 12, 1918.

Dear Dad:—
I think the last time I wrote you was just after I came to the hospital and I know it has been a long time, but you see I found this right handed staff was a little more than I could master here at the hospital anyway, so I am still using my old left hook. I think if I had plenty of paper and a decent place to practice I could soon learn to use my right hand as well as my left, but everything is inconvenient here, so I decided to wait until I get back to learn the stunt.

Am getting along fine so far but don't know when I will get away from here but I think if I am not mistaken I will be home in time to go with you on your first trip next spring.

The wound on my hand is all healed up now but my thumb is practically useless as they just set the bones a couple of days ago. I have a splint on it now sticking out about six inches beyond the end of my thumb.

Am holding the pencil between my first two fingers and striving frantically to get this note written.

Haven't anything of any interest to tell you except that the war is all over and I am still among the living. The first you know, and the rest of it you should know unless you have received some more reports like you got the last time I was wounded, I surely hope nothing like that has happened.

Must make this short Dad but will try and do better from now on.

So long,

Harold.

From Corp. Arthur E. Johnson

The two letters which appear below have been received by relatives of Corp. Arthur E. Johnson, now with Co. E, 142nd Infantry, with the forces overseas:

Dec. 8, 1918.

Dear Brothers and Sisters:—
This is another Sunday afternoon and I am not so busy as I guess I might as well answer some of the letters I did not get. I surely have a letter or two in France somewhere, but I sure haven't received any for a long time. I wouldn't doubt but that I will have a hard time to read a letter now as it has been so long since I have received any such. But I assure you that I sure would be caught trying to make something out of it. I suppose my mail will find me some day so I should worry, and I am worrying nix. I never did want as much to receive a letter here as I did while in the States. And if I do get some mail here I may not take time to answer it.

I just want you to know and keep knowing that I am well and have never to this day missed one day on account of being sick. Still the weather over here to my notion is not the healthiest in the world as sometimes it is rainy here for a week at a time. Of course we have raincoats, overcoats, shirts, sweaters, leather coats, and all such stuff as that, so we need not get cold or wet.

I am very well satisfied with my transferring to this company and division. Have you seen anything in the papers of what the 36th division has done over here? I am thankful that I am in a division or company that has done something, even tho I have done but little myself. As to being in the 36th division, I never did know of them doing anything worth a great deal while I was with it. Of course I guess they did not have much chance. There is no telling what would have been done if they were put to the test.

Well, I think I had better get ready for supper so I will write more some other time. I got my paper from an old Frenchman. I haven't seen anything of the Y. since we got in this town. They surely are lost. Take good care of yourselves and the old farm and I will be home some day. So good bye.

From your brother,
Co. F., 142nd Inf.

Dear Folks:—
I am going to write once again just merely to tell you all hello and that I am feeling fine. Now what more would you care to hear from your soldier brother than to hear that he is in good health.

One thing sure, I have been seeing some country. But as far as seeing any of that. But we have been transferred into a division that sure has done their part. Our thirty-eighth division is no more. We all went as replacement troops. Replace means to take the place of the boys that are lying somewhere in France. The division we are now attached to is the 36th so I don't know as I ever will get my mail that you have been sending me. I got a card from Mabel, a letter from Irene and one from Pearl Davis; also one from Anna E. Brown. I suppose there are dozens of letters for me somewhere but probably I will never see them.

I am ashamed of myself for not writing more but we have been on the move almost all of the time so have had only a letter at a time to write. But you need not worry about me for I am surely able to care for myself. I got separated from my school teacher. He is in the same regiment as I so I guess I will get to see him once in a while.

I am going to close for this time as I am going to write a few lines for a partner of mine. I am going to write to his wife. So here is your brother all O. K. and in good health.

From Amel E. McDaniel

Mr. and Mrs. Adam McDaniel of Chapin have received the following letter from their son Amel McDaniel, in France:

Somewhere in France,
December 5, 1918.

Dear Home Folks:—
Will drop you a few lines to let you know I am feeling fine and dandy, and I hope this will find you all the same. I received your letter today written November 15, and one Sunday written November 9. They sure did have bad news for me, but the Lord knows what is best. Mama, you must not worry.

I am in a town called Roseair tonight. Our camp is about half a mile from it. I am still working on the track, but I don't think we will be long, for I think we will be in the states by the middle of January.

I saw Omer again the other day. I am not very far from him. Tell Omer I would like to be there to help him shuck corn, but I don't think it will be long before I am back. I guess I can tell when I arrived here. I left the States on the 1st day of September and landed at Liverpool, England the 13th of the month, and landed in France on my birthday. It will be one I will never forget. There were 13 ships came across together. There were 2800 on the ship I was on. We didn't have any trouble coming across.

 I bet old Jim Wimberly is stepping around proud now. What has become of Elmer and Mabel? You have never mentioned their names. I am at the Y. M. C. A. writing this letter. I bought me a pipe tonight. Think I will quit smoking cigarettes. We got all the Bull Durham furnished us. We want. Tell Halie and Dick I said hello and ugly Delps. I got a letter from Grace the other day. The first one since I have been over. I guess I have got about all the letters you have written me. I have had but one from Halie. I guess it won't take long for mail to come across now.
 I will close for this time, hoping to hear from you soon. I am, as ever, your soldier son. With love to the home folks, Amel.

From Private Alva Stainforth

Relatives in Scott county have received the letters which appear below from Private Alva Stainforth, of base hospital No. 53, A. E. F.:
 Nov. 30, 1918.

Mr. Lee Stainforth,
 Winchester, Ill.
 Dear Brother:
 I am going to give you a surprise in this letter. Wednesday I had a sore throat and bad cold so the officer of the day said I had better go in the ward for a few days. I expect to go out tomorrow.

Yesterday we got a convoy and as I was walking up the aisle some one called me and who in the world was it but Bert McFarland. He is sitting on the bed with me now. I was certainly glad to see him and he was just as glad to see me. He is the first one I have seen from home. He is not nearly as fleshy as he was when at home.

He has lost at least fifty pounds. He told me that Roy Fligg was killed. He was shot in the head during the last drive.
 Ulysses Fox of Sinclair was with Roy when he was killed. I am feeling fine and it certainly makes a fellow feel good to see someone from home. I may not get to write but one or two letters more from here. We had a good Thanksgiving dinner and expect to be lots nearer home for Christmas. I must close and let Bert write a little. Hope all are feeling well and in the best of health. I remain, as ever,

Mrs. J. H. Stainforth,

 Dearest Mother:
 I will write a little before I go to bed. I have been over to see Bert McFarland tonight. He feels pretty good. I go to see him every day or night. We have been around together. Have Lee call his mother and tell her that he is feeling good. He has written home several times but they may not get the letters. He was surprised when I read your letter today, saying his mother had not heard from him for ten weeks. He also told me about Roy Fligg's death. I am sorry to hear of Art Kitchen's death. You must all take good care of yourselves.
 It has been raining for about three days and looks as if it may keep it up for some time yet. I am feeling fine.

I expect I am getting all of your letters and papers. Your last letter came in seventeen days. I expect you will get this about Christmas or New Year's so I send the best wishes of the season to all. I would like to send something but everything is about five prices. I have a few small souvenirs. I expect Albert will leave here in a few days. . . .
 Give my best wishes to all the kids and tell them I will be home before long.
 With love, from your son, Al.

Private Harry Hoppercroft Writes to Relatives.

Razac, France.
 December 13th, 1918.
 Dear Brother and Sisters, and Dickie:
 Will endeavor to scratch you a little synopsis of the past month or so. My paper is quite scarce. So pardon me if I am brief. All of us boys are quite well and having a good time, have been missed by the flu, although we caught it a long while, and have learned that you also have been free from it. I was awfully afraid something had been wrong as I had not even heard from home since one letter dated Sept. 9th, until just two days ago when I learned you were all well and gaining in health, and was amused with Mother's description of Dickie's progress. Don't suppose I'd know him; nor would he know me hardly. I got weighed recently and tipped at 186 pounds.

It has rained here continuously for three weeks, every hour of the day. Am back at my bugling job, nothing to do on it but get 'em up at 7 a. m. and blow re-treat in the evening. In fact, there's nothing for any of us to do now, all the patients are gone from here and closed the chateau (hospital) and am waiting orders for our next move. We don't know whether we're coming home soon or staying here for a year. We've been told we were going to sail by the 20th, but it's all uncertain. President Wilson arrives tomorrow and all France is to have a holiday. Then the big peace dope will be on. Suppose you are having some pretty cold weather over there, are you not?

Guess George is pretty busy in the office about this time isn't he? And how is Bea, is she still in Jacksonville?

Was sorry to learn of my old pal's death—'twas very sad news indeed.

This is my last sheet of paper so think I'd better make things short.

Sam Richards (guess you remember him) is the only Jacksonville boy with us now.

Well, dear sisters and brother George, here's wishing you worlds of success for the future year and happy greetings. Love and regards to all and please write me soon.

Your loving brother,
 Harry Hoppercroft.

Corp. John Colwell Writes to Home Folks

Dear Folks:
 The Stars and Stripes said every soldier should write his father a Xmas letter Sunday, the 24th, but our company hadn't received the orders of the lifting of the censorship so I waited a few days. Yesterday was just such a day as Thanksgiving was last year if you remember it was raining nearly all day, but I didn't go hunting yesterday, ha, ha. We had a big dinner. Roast pig took the place of turkey. We had pumpkin pie and apple pudding and we are feeling good now. I weighed last night down at the station. I weighed 83 kilos. There wasn't 193 pounds. That looks like I am getting fat. We had the day off yesterday. We are having things pretty nice since the war is over. I think we drill about the same as they do in the States.

The carpenters in the company are building barns for the horses and working on barracks. Of course I'm no carpenter so I get my five hours drill a day when it isn't rainy. We have regular inspection every Saturday morning and Saturday afternoon off. Even at this we are very anxious to get home. I think if we were kept busier we wouldn't have time to think of home. Since the first of September I couldn't write very regularly, for sometimes mail didn't go out for a week at a time. And times the officers couldn't have lights to censor the mail and sometimes I was pretty busy from daylight until dark. We weren't able to get base censor envelopes and cards so could not send the cards either. Coming over we landed in Liverpool at 10 a. m. and got on the train at one p. m. We stopped at Rugby, about 30 minutes. The company took a walk; also got coffee here. We came through the outskirts of London and landed at Dover at 10 p. m. There wasn't a light to be seen nor scarcely anyone on the streets. We took the boat for Calais next day about a two hours ride. We went to what was called a rest camp about two miles from the pier where we landed. Everything was sand here. We stayed about three days and then took a train to Laumes. We hiked from Laumes to Colombert about eight miles from Bologne. We thought we were doing something if we hiked from 15 to 22 miles with a belt and rifle but when we got nearer the front we hiked that far with our packs. Then when we were around the front we did most of our hiking at night. We slept in our little tents all the time except about three weeks we were inside. I didn't mind sleeping on the ground only when it rained and then it was impossible to keep dry in a tent. We went up to the St. Mihiel front Sept. 10th and left Oct. 3rd and hiked three nights with packs and took a lorry. Rode to the Argonne Forest and we went to the front here Oct. 10th. As we were camping the first night there were some German aeroplanes came over and the lights around our kitchen gave us away and we were bombed, but no one was hurt. We stayed up here until Nov. 7th and started back. It was three days before we came to a civilized town. I kept a diary up till Nov. 1st when the 78th started a drive with the 1st army. Of course we built some bridges and helped clear the roads. We were around Grand Pre. I lost my diary I suppose when we packed up some night when we were at the front. One of the fellows in my squad was hit in the hand and leg with shrapnel but is back from the hospital now. Two of the other fellows had their rifles hit with shrapnel. That didn't scare me much. I was in some gas. I think it was locustatory as it made us sneeze so we could hardly work. We built some bridges at night under machine gun fire as well as artillery. The machine gunners and snipers were what frightened me most. Well I guess this is enough of this war stuff. We have just received a schedule for a months drill but if it comes time to go home I guess the drill will be forgotten. I have been carrying this paper for sometime as you may notice I have three months pay coming. I'm stretching my money out. I hope we get paid, so if I have a chance I will buy some souvenirs. Must close. With love to all.

John.
 From Com. Gen. 78th Division
 To commanding officers 303 Engrs.
 Subj.: Const. of bridges at Grand Pre.

1st. Please convey to the members of A. B. E. companies of your regiment who worked upon the bridges at Grand Pre my thanks for their good work and my sincere compliments upon the courage and devotion shown by them in their work under heavy machine gun, high explosive and gas shell fire.

2nd. While my attention has been particularly drawn to the coolness and fortitude of these companies I am not unmindful of the excellent and vital work done by the remainder of your regiment upon other bridges and roads. I take this opportunity to make record of my high approval of the manner in which the roads pertaining to this division were opened up and maintained during the advance thru the Argonne Forest.

J. U. McCall.
 Maj. Gen. Commanding.
 The above compliments were given the boys of 78th Division, Co. A. B. E. 303 Engineers, of which John S. Colwell was holding the position of corporal of Co. E, 303 Regular Engineers, A. E. France, dated Nov. 14th, 1918.

Lieut. Arthur A. Mendonsa arrived home Friday night on a ten day leave of absence. He has been discharging quartermaster of the S. A. T. Unit, Columbia University, New York, and has not been discharged.

Ask Dad

Just ask Dad to stay at home one day and do the family wash.

Dad won't do it

He will say there ought not to be a wash day at all—that the home isn't the place to do the wash.

Dad will say, "Send all the wash to the laundry," and Dad will be right.

All things considered, it costs less to have us do the washing than to do it at home. Let us prove it.

Heat Garage to Save Radiator From Cold

If the small private garage is to be used during the winter, any car owner of experience will understand the necessity of heating it. The cold garage causes many ills besides the obvious one of freezing up the radiator of the car. In most cases it will cause more than enough damage and inconvenience to have paid for a complete heating plant.

Most of the starting trouble so generally complained of in winter may be traced back to the cold garage. A sudden drop in temperature is bad for the parts of the engine and for the finish of the body, which are susceptible to marked expansion and contraction through changes in temperature. During the long nights of winter great drops often occur and a garage that is unheated subjects the car to unnecessary and dangerous tests.

Ice in the batteries is another recognized evil resulting from the cold garage. Also there is the inconvenience of washing when the car is covered with frozen mud. If the car is cleaned with warm water to remove the mud and the garage is cold, the paint and varnish are apt to suffer serious damage, says a writer in Motor.

WEAKNESS REMAINS LONG AFTER Influenza

Reports Show That Strength Energy and Ambition Return Very Slowly to Grippe Patients.

After an attack of influenza, doctors advise that nature be assisted in its building-up process by the use of a good tonic—one that will not only put strength and endurance into the body, but will also help to build up and strengthen the run-down cells of the brain.

One of the most highly recommended remedies to put energy into both body and brain is Bio-feren—your physician knows the formula—it is printed below.

There's iron in Bio-feren—the kind of iron that makes red blood corpuscles and creates vigor. There is lecithin also; probably the best brain invigorator known to science. Then there is good old reliable gentian, that brings back your lagging appetite.

There are other ingredients that help to promote good health, as you can see by reading this formula, not forgetting kolo, that great agent that puts the power of endurance into weak people.

Taken altogether Bio-feren is a splendid active tonic that will greatly help any weak, run-down person to regain normal strength, energy, ambition and endurance.

Bio-feren is sold by all reliable druggists and is inexpensive. For weakness after influenza patients are advised to take two tablets after each meal and one at bed time—seven a day, until health, strength and vigor are fully restored.

It will not fail to help you and if for any reason you are dissatisfied with results your druggist is authorized to return your money upon request—without any deduction of any kind.

Notes to physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren, it is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin; Calcium Glycero-phosphate; Iron Peptonate, Manganese Peptonate; Ext. Nux. Vomica; Powdered Gentian; Phenolphthalein; Oleoresin

DISCONTINUANCE OF KNITTING

"Cease knitting" is the latest instruction from National Headquarters. You will please note carefully therefore the following information:

1. Knitted garments actually started are to be completed as rapidly as possible and shipped to the Division or State Warehouse. All articles made available within the next few weeks can be used to provide effective relief during the present winter.

2. Stocks of knitted articles on hand in the Division and Camp Warehouses now equal estimated requirements of the Departments of Military and Foreign Relief.

Note: (a) The Department of Military Relief will care for the needs of all men now in camps and for those returning from the other side.

(b) The Department of Foreign Relief will utilize the supply assigned to them either for shipment to France for use by the men there, or for delivery to our foreign commissions for use in civilian relief work.

3. Chapters that have quotas of nurses' sweaters should complete before stopping knitting.

It should be gratifying to the women of America that their less fingers have added material to the comfort of the country's defenders, especially during the period following the mobilization of our fighting forces. Practically every man that went overseas, as well as those who remained in the country's training camps, was supplied with these comforts.

More than ten million knitted articles were turned out by the Red Cross workers in the seventeen months preceding the signing of the armistice.

A report, on the attached form, of stocks of sweaters and sock yarn is requested of all chapters. This information is required by National Headquarters where plans are being considered as to the disposal of these stocks.

Yours very truly,
R. C. McNamara, Director,
Department of Development.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Short Course in Farm Accounts—The first of these one day schools will begin at 10 o'clock, Monday, Jan. 13th in the social room of the Y. M. C. A. building, W. S. Watson of the Farm Management Department of the College of Agriculture giving instruction in the use of the Farm Account Book recently issued by the department. This will be a real school of intensive work.

During the first part of the session a set of typical farm operations will be written up, completed, closed and the taxable income computed. Those in attendance will then be assigned in starting their own books for 1919.

The only expense will be for the books which cost 10 cents each. In order to make the work effective it is considered advisable to limit the enrollment any one day to 20.

If more apply, another date will be arranged. The school is open to a son, daughter, wife or whoever is the bookkeeper on the farm. The school is scheduled for Franklin on Tuesday, Murrayville Wednesday, and with Thursday open either to Literberry, Concord or Chapin.

Meeting of Morgan County Breeders and Feeders Association—In the opinion of those present when this organization was launched we ought to have another meeting at 12:30 Saturday, January 18th. The object of this meeting is to perfect the organization by electing directors representing horse breeders, beef cattle breeders, dairy cattle breeders, Swine breeders, sheep breeders and poultry raisers. This association is wide open, and any person at all interested in such an organization is invited to attend its meetings. It has been suggested that as soon as completed, and any considerable number enrolled as members, that a breeders directory be published and some combination sales arranged. An association of this sort is particularly attractive to the small breeder.

WILL STUDY STYLES IN NEW YORK CITY

On Saturday, January 18, S. Green, in charge of the Ladies' department of the Jacksonville Tailoring company, will leave for New York city to make an extensive study at first hand of the coming spring styles.

A ladies' tailoring department was established something over a year ago by Mr. Renner, president of the company, as an experiment to see if the ladies of Jacksonville in sufficient number cared to have their suits, skirts, coats, etc., tailored to measure, and it has met with such hearty approval and response that he believes he owes it to his patrons to secure for them the best advice obtainable, hence the decision to send Mr. Green to New York.

Mr. Green has had years of experience in his particular line of work in Chicago, and states that while style sheets afford fair working plans, the best and the most exclusive ideas can be gained only by study in the real style centers.

FORD SUBMARINE CHASER DESCRIBED

Notwithstanding Cessation of Hostilities The Boats Are to Become Part of American Navy—Sea-Worthiness Demonstrated in Official Trials.

Detroit, Jan. 8.—A long, narrow wedge, with a steel-encased nose of solid concrete tapered to a knifelike edge, forming a considerable part of its total length of 204 feet, and declared to be capable of crushing any submarine—such is the Eagle, built by Henry Ford and designed originally to help rid the seas of the menace of the German U-Boats.

Contrary to popular belief the Eagle is not a motor boat, but an oil-burning, steam turbine driven craft, with a cruising radius of 5,000 miles. The Eagle is not a thing of beauty; beauty was not contemplated in its construction. It is a long, blunt weapon of war, of all steel construction with the exception of the concrete nose.

Another popular impression that has been shattered is an idea that the Eagle boat is equipped with torpedo tubes. The submarine chaser was not intended to combat the major instrument of German ruthlessness with its own weapons. It was designed to depend upon its man overboarding qualities, its powerful light guns, and a new American invention for directing its fire at unseen objects.

Its crew including operating and fighting complement numbers approximately 80 men.

To the observer, the first impression of the Eagle boat is one of wonder that a craft so narrow can possess buoyancy sufficient to keep it upright in heavy seas. Despite its length of more than an average city block, the craft has a beam of only 25 feet, and draws when fully equipped less than ten feet of water.

Its sea-worthiness, has been demonstrated in the official trials according to reports to the Navy Department.

While it is admitted the Eagle does not make the speed of the average destroyer, it is claimed that it can out-distance most submarines and the razer-like edge of the bow, silently but eloquently tells what would have happened had it come in contact with the German undersea pirate.

Built with utility as its prime purpose, seemingly not an inch of space is wasted in the fitting of the vessel, and not an ounce of superfluous weight enters its construction. When dropped into the water ready for the installation of its engines, guns, etc., less than 200 tons of material have been riveted together to shape the Eagle boat.

The plates that form the shell of the submarine chasers vary in thickness from 3/4 to 3/8 inch, and not a single forging or rolled beam enters their makeup. Everything is pressed from sheet metal, cold, by means of machinery that cuts every piece to an exact pattern, punches rivet holes, and bends the interior part to required shape.

Amidships rises the deckhouse topped by the pilot house, with radio quarters, and above all the coming tower with the crow's nest at the highest point. Except for this super-structure, the deck of the Eagle carries always the "stripped for action" appearance.

The first Eagle boat was launched July 11, 1918 and when the Armistice ended hostilities, early in November, eight had been completed and twenty one others were under construction in various stages of completion. Some of these have arrived at Atlantic coast ports.

Altho the sudden cessation of hostilities deprived the Eagle boats of an opportunity to test their prowess against the German undersea terror, they are nevertheless to become a part of the American Navy, the government having announced its intention to use them as gun boats in coast patrol work, and possibly in insular waters.

The contract for the construction of the Eagle boats, which the government has announced will be carried out, calls for 100 of the vessels for the United States government, and twelve for the French navy.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE WHEN CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Take No Chance! Move Poisons from Liver and Bowels at Once.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what all your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, or breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

NOTICE TO NERVOUS WOMEN

Mrs. Seibert Tells How You Can Overcome Nervous Conditions

Louisville, Ky.—"I suffered badly from nervousness, a run-down condition, no appetite and pains in my back—until I just had to give up. A friend told me about Vinol and I felt better after taking the second bottle. Now I have a good appetite and am feeling fine, strong and healthy in every way."—Mrs. I. F. Seibert.

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mrs. Seibert's case, is because it contains the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich red blood and create strength. For sale by all druggists.

P. S.: If you have eczema try our Saxon Salve. We guarantee it.—Adv.

After hostilities ceased students were given their choice of being discharged or finishing their course and being commissioned into the Army Reserve. A considerable number of the students elected to finish the course.

COYOTE HUNTS ARE POPULAR IN CANADA

Edmonton, Alberta, Jan. 10.—Coyote hunts in sub-zero weather are popular in this vicinity, and the last hunt at Bremner and East Cloer Bar, are attracting many automobilists as well as horsemen. Ranchers are planning to continue the campaign of extermination all winter. Twenty-five wolf heads have been obtained for these drives.

The next drive will cover a large section of the East Cloer Bay district. The plan is to form a half circle and close in on the coyotes at the river bank.

President Rammelkamp went to Chicago Wednesday night to attend the meeting of the Association of American Colleges.

Professor J. G. Ames was in Chicago Wednesday on business connected with Was Savings Stamps.

Aurelius Vosseller, a student in Whipple Academy, has received notice of his appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis; the appointment of course, conditioned upon the passing of the entrance examinations. Mr. Vosseller does not plan to enter the Academy until the fall of 1920.

Dr. R. H. Lacey as faculty representative, and Homer Thompson representing student body from Illinois College left Saturday morning to attend a conference of the Y. M. C. A. to be held at Bloomington Saturday and Sunday. The conference is held under the auspices of the National War Work Council.

The Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. societies of the College are planning to hold a series of religious meetings during the first week of February.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED

I'll tell you Jim my chance looked slim, while I was over there to get on the track that would bring me back. Well, I gave up in despair. You see while I was in the hospital there's a nurse, don't you know, who always cheers you up a bit when your wound seems healing slow. Every day was a fight with all my might to overcome my pain. I only hoped that I might live to see Mother once again. Her cheering letters I loved to read, don't worry my boy, she'd say there's a time in your life midst all the strife. You shouldn't forget to pray and over there a word of cheer means a lot to a lad that's down. It helps him on his feet a bit and relieves him all around.

As I lay on my cot I thought a lot of Father and Mother alone; and prayed to God to spare my life once more till I got home. I know He heard my earnest prayer and now I'm home to stay—until He blows His trumpet horn on the final Judgment Day.
Joseph N. Grishch, 123 City Place.

MAVERICKS

It is too bad that a man must die before his virtues are appreciated.

While Count Bernstorff may be in sympathy with President Wilson's peace terms, we doubt whether he can speak with authority for the German government. If the count is a power in the new government then all Americans will look with suspicion upon any promises it may make.

The unanimity of opinion that used to prevail in the Board of Education seems to be getting on a reverse curve.

Mr. McAdoo says he is fading out politically. It is just as well for he would have been blotted out in a year or so anyway.

Gen. Smuts talks on the league of nations says a dispatch. We are of the opinion that there will be considerable smut before the thing is finally settled.

Some employers are giving bonuses to their best truck drivers. If they will change that and make it for the fastest drivers we have two drivers in mind that we want to nominate for a prize.

After throwing rocks at Theodore Roosevelt's front door while he was living Bill Camp slipped up to the back door with a bouquet of flowers after he was dead.

We Believe He Knew.
One time H. E. Chubbuck vice president executive of the Illinois Traction system told us that when the utility commission was organized that city councils could go to a warmer climate insofar as getting any satisfaction in a controversy with a public utility company. Judging from the way in which the commission is allowing increases of rates and the issuance of bonds Mr. Chubbuck knew whereof he spoke.

There is lots of talk over in Europe but so far it can be seen not much progress is being made in peace negotiations.

While we are interested in peace over in Europe a small sized revolution is fomenting right on our back door step.

Well, we still have Ham Lewis and Sherman with us.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 25c and 50c per box. All druggists.

We Take Time

When we say "We Take Time," we mean that no work undertaken by us ever is unduly hurried—we take the time necessary to perfectly understand our patron's every wish, and we take the time necessary to accomplish his wishes. It is in this way that we give satisfaction.

If you are not a patron of ours we would like the opportunity to prove to you, as we have to hundreds of others, what our policy of taking time will mean to you.

Power

To make that motor whirl

When you put your foot on the starter—Power is what's wanted. Put a Columbia Storage Battery in your car and you can press the button with the feeling that there's going to be something doing—Quick.

Columbia Storage Battery

The Columbia is a powerful battery. It will stand operating conditions that wreck others. Its plates of hexagonal construction like a honeycomb, are self reinforcing, and balk against buckling.

But we don't expect you to abuse a Columbia just because it is an exceptionally good battery. We expect you to let us help you keep it in A1 condition all the time.
